

Invitation to the South-South
Development Solutions Forum on Global Health in conjunction with the Global South-South Development Expo
2009
Washington, D.C., 16 December 2009

The Pan American Health Organization/World Health Organization (PAHO/WHO) and the Special Unit for South-South Cooperation of the United Nations Development Program (UNDP) are pleased to announce the South-South Development Solutions Forum on Global Health, which will be held as part of the Second Global South-South Development Expo, on 16 December 2009, in Washington D.C.

The Forum is designed to generate a powerful exchange of Southern-grown solutions to public health problems while increasing global awareness and mobilizing support for South-South cooperation for inclusive development. This event will serve as a vibrant platform for the international community to celebrate southern achievements; share development successes; explore new avenues for collaboration; forge innovative South-South, triangular and public-private partnerships; and launch concrete collaborative initiatives towards the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals.

We are pleased to invite you to attend the South-South Development Solutions Forum on Global Health, which will be held on 16 December 2009, from 3:00 to 5:45 p.m., at PAHO Headquarters, located at 525 23rd Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

For more information, visit www.paho.org/gssdexpo09. If you can't see this web site, please copy the address and paste it in a new web browser.

To confirm your attendance, please register at <http://www.southsouthexpo.org/registration-form.asp>.